

Plus, Guided Journey

Thinking about law school?
Take your next steps with confidence.

Applications are open for LSAC's Plus, Guided Journey program.

Designed for individuals planning to apply to law school during the fall 2024 application cycle, Plus, Guided Journey will:

- Introduce you to law schools across the country
- Guide and support you throughout the law school application process
- Provide tailored LSAT preparation and guidance
- Offer workshops with law school professionals on topics such as admission and financial aid
- Provide financial assistance toward LSAT and law school application costs through an LSAC fee waiver
- Equip you with tools to build necessary skills that create a foundation for law school success
- Help you connect and belong to a community of future legal scholars working towards the same goals

It is free to apply and there is no cost to participate in the program if selected.

Scan the QR code to learn more

Connect With Us

